

U.S. Representative Chris John invites your family to a good old-fashioned Louisiana cockfight.

“I strongly support the cockfighting industry in Louisiana.”

In cockfights, razor sharp knives are strapped to roosters' legs.

Chris John supports cockfighting. In fact, he called it "a cultural, family-type thing" and "an industry that is very important to America."

A recent poll revealed that 82% of Louisiana voters want to ban cockfighting in Louisiana. But the majority opinion means nothing to Chris John. Through word and deed, he has become an embarrassment to Louisiana.

The birds are forced to hack each other to death for "entertainment."

Chris John's record is cruel and shameful. Vote for somebody else. Read more at ChrisJohn04.com
